Language and Culture at TRU

Learn it — Speak it — Live it!

Thompson Rivers University (TRU), located in Kamloops, British Columbia, is a 45 minute flight from Vancouver. Kamloops is known for its safe and family-oriented environment. Kamloops' natural beauty and diversity of outdoor recreation makes TRU a popular education destination for students from all over the world.

Students from every country comment on the friendly atmosphere at the university. The extra care we give, the teaching techniques we use and customized instruction we have developed help them achieve their language learning goals. Participants will:

- › Gain confidence and fluency in English
- › Interact with other English speakers
- › Practise English in real life situations
- › Explore the multicultural and daily aspects of Canadian life
- › Share their culture with others
- › Enjoy a variety of cultural activities

Register Now! This program ensures that students have ample time to adjust to Canadian culture. Most importantly, it equips students with the skills they need to achieve maximum scores on TRU's required English Placement Test.

Language & Cultural Immersion Program

August 7–24, 2012

We believe students learn best when relaxed, comfortable and highly motivated. This program encourages participants to speak English at all times; in the classroom, on activities and with their homestay families. We are a learner-centered environment that enables participants to learn through listening, speaking and active participation in a rich educational setting. This program is open to participants of all English levels.

Program cost of $2,360 CAD includes the following:

- › Homestay accommodations (meals included).
- › Pick up and drop off at Kamloops airport.
- › Access to computer labs.
- › Support of instructors in the classroom and activities.
- › Orientation to TRU’s campus and the City of Kamloops.
- › All costs of cultural and recreational activities.

Minimum age requirement – 16 years.
